At a meeting Wednesday afternoon, the bid on the new City-County Health Center Building was awarded to the Lavender Construction Company, lowest of six bidders, for a price of $68,000. The modernistic brick building will be built adjacent to the Hope National Guard Armory, just west of the Hempstead County Courthouse. Total completed cost will run to about $78,000. Of the cost, the Federal Government will pay two-thirds, with the balance divided evenly between the City of Hope and the County.

Board members of the City-County Health Center are: Chairman, Ralph Lehman, Secretary, Mrs. Cline Franks, Mrs. Bill Duckett, Sr., Bill Routon and Dr. Forney Holt, City Manager. G. G. Medders and County Judge U. G. Garrett, heading the Center's staff will be Mrs. Ray Turner, County Health Nurse. Construction of the building will begin when the Federal approval is received.

Big job to Control Brush in Pastures

Controlling brush in pastures is still the major problem on many farms in Hempstead county.

The brush-hog or rotary mower have been some of the recent developments for cutting brush in pastures. These machines have been a wonderful beginning for farmers to use on brush infested areas.

One mowing does not completely kill brush. It does eliminate the woody top growth which interferes with grazing operations. All brush is perennial in nature and take several mowings to completely kill them. This may require at least two mowings a year for several years. The first mowing should be in June as the brush is in full leaf. Any re-growth should be cut again in late August.

Another alternative in controlling brush is by treatment with 2,4,5-T or a mixture of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T. For foliage applications these chemicals should be applied at the rate of two pounds of active material per acre. This small amount of chemical should be mixed with enough water to insure proper distribution. Ten to 20 gallons of water are usually adequate for ground equipment. The chemicals are usually formulated to contain 2-6 pounds of active material per gallon of liquid. For hard-to-kill brush use 2,4,5-T in an oil-water emulsion consisting of 10 per cent by volume of diesel fuel. If the water is hard, add 1/8 cup of wetting agent such as Drefit.

Timeliness of foliage application cannot be overemphasized. Brush like blackberry and dewberry should be sprayed when the first blossoms appear. Hardwood species should be sprayed when the leaves are fully developed. For broadleaf species, this time in June.

The foliage application will also kill large hardwood trees. However, farmers may be more satisfied to cut the large trees and brush at ground level. This can be followed by treating the stumps or spraying the regrowth. This results in less dead or unsightly material marring the landscape later on. It also permits re-sprouting this method can be used at any time of the year for stump treatment. Paint or spray the entire stump with 2,4,5-Testers, four pounds of acid equivalent mixed with 20 gallons of diesel fuel. Apply extra material around the outer edge of the stump to permit wetting the cut surface. Treatment should be made within 24 hours after the trees are cut.

2,4-D or 2,4,5-T is nonpoisonous to grazing animals. However, some poisonous plants when sprayed often become more attractive to animals. Where these may be present, grazing should be delayed until such weeds and brush are dead. Some of the poisonous plants include black nightshade, water hemlock, whorled milkweed, etc.

Pine Tip-Moth Control Facts Told to Visitors

Pine tip-moth control was one piece of research highlighted here today during the Visiting Day at the University of Arkansas Southwest Branch Experiment Station.

Dr. L. O. Warren, associate entomologist, explained that in addition to control and biological studies, the Arkansas Station is cooperating with Mississippi Alabama, and the U. S. Forest Service in studying long term effects of pine tip-moth attack.

The pine tip moth feeds within the terminals resulting in stunted malformed trees. There are three or four generations a year in Arkansas. Attack by the first two is usually the most serious, he explained.

Plots of loblolly and shortleaf pine have been established at the Southwest Station, he continued. Half of the plots are sprayed to prevent tip-moth damage while infestations are allowed to run wild in the other plots. After the first year's growth, protected trees were about a foot taller than unprotected trees. Evaluation of results is based on tree growth, time to first harvest, quality of the tree and, eventually, quality of saw timber produced.

Tests during the past three years indicate that timing insecticidal treatments in relation to the insect's life history gives effective control. Treatments were most effective when applied just before the eggs hatch. As the larvae hatch they contact the toxic material and die. Most effective materials tested include DDT, Guthion, Dimethoate and Trithion. A single DDT spray treatment applied in June each year of 1958 and 1959 gave three more feet of growth per tree than untreated trees, Dr. Warren said.

Dr. John W. White, University vice-president for agriculture, was principal speaker in the afternoon. C. M. Bittle, assistant director in charge of the Southwest Station, was in charge of the program.

Other stops on the morning tour were: cotton breeding and production, discussed by Dr. B. A. Waddle, agronomist, and Gene Woodall, Extension cotton specialist; Dr. J. L. Bowers, horticulturist, discussed the cucumber breeding and testing trials; Dr. A. E. Spooner, associate agronomist, talked about the pasture research; Leroy Gray, Extension wildlife conservationist, was in charge of a wildlife exhibit; and J. K. Ball, Extension horticulturist, discussed landscaping.

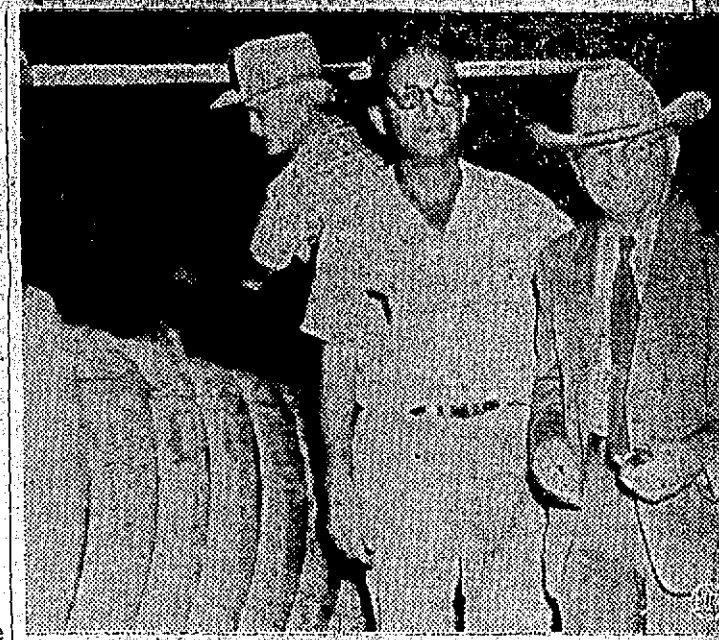

A similar field tour and discussion of research were presented for the Negro Visiting Day on Friday (June 24). Among those appearing on the program were: Mrs. Hattie Harrison with First Electric Cooperative of Jacksonville, Ark.; Raymond Benz, Extension agricultural engineer; Rev. Henry Wilson, AME Church of Gurdun; youth talent; Jereline Bullard, Negro HDA of Jefferson county; T. R. Betton, Negro agricultural agent of Little Rock; and Dr. E. E. Evans, acting president of A. M. & N. College of Pine Bluff, who gave the main address.

Hope to Win Okay on Park Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark.) still hopes to win approval of a bill to establish the Arkansas Post National Memorial in Southeast Arkansas before Congress adjourns.

A bill passed by the House to mark the site of the earliest white settlement in the area would limit Federal expenditure to $125,000, of which $25,000 could go to buy land.

A Senate Interior subcommittee, at Fulbright's urging, deleted that limitation, provided by an amendment to the original House bill of Rep. W. F. Norrell (D-Ark.).

The full Senate committee, apparently objecting to the change, has not acted on the measure.

Fulbright said he would accept the bill with the limit if it would get action soon.

Norrell said prospects aren't too bright for the bill becoming law this year, but he said he hasn't given up all hope.

A Limited Health Bill Passes House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today passed a limited program of health care for some of the aged.

The measure now goes to the Senate where advocates of broad-based health care hope to expand it.

The House Wednesday debated the bill and gave it indirect approval then by shouting down a motion to send it back to committee. Such a move would have killed it.

Thinks State Should Dig for Schools

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas should be willing to spend whatever is necessary to provide adequate educational opportunities, Dr. David W. Mullins, University of Arkansas president, said yesterday.

Mullins told a Little Rock civic club that education today is as essential as food, clothing or medical care.

He said a study of the University's budget had convinced him that no other university is "doing so much with so little support."

The educator said the state had not given the school any additional support since 1957, when a series of tax increases provided funds which he said allowed Arkansas to catch up with neighboring states in the competition for personnel.

Since then, Mullins said, other state universities have increased support for higher education. He said the university and other Arkansas educational institutions must "break through to a much higher level of support" if they are to assist properly in the state's development.

"I believe we should make up our minds and commit ourselves to spend whatever is necessary to see that our children have the kind of education that will enable them to meet the problems of the space age and to compete on even terms with people in other states," he said. "Both the future of our children and the future of the state demand this sort of commitment."

He termed the university's financial position "critical" and said salaries are far below the national average for state universities.

Missile Base to Be Built at Little Rock

WASHINGTON (AP) — An $8 million dollar launching base for new Titan II intercontinental ballistic missiles will be built at Little Rock Air Base, probably to be completed by 1962.

The Air Force, announcing the project yesterday, said the base would be manned by about 1,200 people when completed. Little Rock is the eighth base selected for the Titan and one of four sites which will support two Titan squadrons each.

The first bases for the new missile, which was disclosed by the Air Force only this week, are scheduled to be operational by some time next year. A total of 14 such squadrons are planned.

The 18 Titan launching sites will be dug into outlying areas of the present Little Rock Air Force Base, which will support the missile operations, the Air Force said. Each site of about 10 acres will be at least 10 miles from the air base.

Capable of carrying a larger nuclear warhead than the earlier Titan I, the new missile uses a new fuel which can be stored for long periods and kept ready for almost instantaneous firing. It also can be fired in salvos and can be fired from its underground concrete silo. Earlier versions had to be raised to ground level for firing.

The advanced Titan will be directed to its target by a special guidance system which the Air Force says cannot be jammed by any known method.

Prime contractor for the Titan is The Martin Co. Its rocket engines are produced by the Aerojet General Corp. The Air Force's Strategic Air Command (SAC) is in charge of the guidance system.

First word of location of the base at Little Rock came from Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark.) Official announcements from both Washington and Omaha, head of the Strategic Air Command, followed.

Under the pension system members of Congress contribute 7 1/2 per cent of their $22,500 salary to the pension fund. Their pension is 2 1/2 per cent of their top pay multiplied by the number of years of congressional service. The maximum is $18,000 a year.

Previously a congressman had to serve five years to qualify for a pension. The bill would allow a member with only one year in Congress to work four years in another government agency and still qualify.

Own Pensions Sweetened by Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has passed a bill to sweeten its own pension system.

The bill passed the House in one minute Wednesday and was sent to President Eisenhower. The bill, after some amendment, had been passed by the Senate last month by a 5-3 vote—not many senators were around at the time.

The measure would allow former congressmen to qualify for pensions by working in other government agencies to fill out the minimum requirement of five years' service. It also applies to some veteran congressional employees.

Transplants Kidney Successfully

BOSTON (AP) — Doctors at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital today proclaimed the first successful kidney transplant operation involving non-identical twins.

The operation was performed Jan. 24, 1959. A healthy kidney was taken from Andrew Rileys of Milwaukee and given to his brother John.

Doctors said that in the 17 months which elapsed they were able to determine that the kidney will continue to function properly. The 24-year-old brothers today enjoy what was described as normal, healthy lives.

After inserting Andrew's kidney in John's body, both of the latter's diseased kidneys were removed.

Doctors said John would have died without his brother's kidney. The Rileys' operation was the first declared successful, where the parties involved were not identical twins.

Break Up a Anti-Castro Organization

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Federal agents have broken up what was believed to be a small Anti-Castro army preparing to invade Cuba.

It was reported that some 60 young Cubans, recruited in Miami, were taken to a motel at Key Largo Monday night, apparently to await transportation to Cuba, when federal agents stepped in.

Cuban sources said recruiting was done by former henchman of Fulgencio Batista, who was deposed as Cuban leader by Fidel Castro on Jan. 1, 1959.

FBI agents in Miami refused to comment on the case and had made no arrests, but they admitted an investigation was being made.

Meanwhile, five top exiled Cuban political figures formed a new "revolutionary" front against Prime Minister Fidel Castro in Mexico City. They said the Democratic Revolutionary Front (Frente Revolucionario Democrático) or (FRD) "intends to overthrow Fidel Castro's dictatorship and establish a provisional government for 12 months."

Ouachita Plan Cleared, Says Fabus

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.) said today the Ouachita River navigation project has been cleared by the Budget Bureau and no longer is opposed by the administration.

This $43,550,000 project to provide a 9-foot navigation channel on the Black-Ouachita river in Louisiana and Arkansas is in a water projects authorization bill recently passed by the Senate.

However, it was among a group of projects opposed by the administration for one reason or another. It had been included with a group of about 10 to which the administration objected because review reports on them hadn't yet cleared Congress.

Harris said today the Ouachita report now has been cleared, and is not opposed.

The bill itself now is in hands of a Senate-House conference committee. The House passed the bill a year ago with about 55 projects costing less than 500 million dollars. The Senate increased it to about 150 projects with a federal cost of 1 1/2 billion dollars.

The conference committee will determine which projects added by the Senate should remain in the final bill sent to the President.

Kishi Adopts Peace Treaty, Will Resign

By GENE KRAMER

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi today put into effect a new 10-year military alliance between the United States and Japan—the major goal of his 3 1/2-year regime—and announced he would resign.

Kishi, for weeks the target of fanatical demonstrations by radical students, Socialists, Communists and labor forces, set no date for his resignation. But a spokesman said the Cabinet would quit en masse as soon as Kishi's Liberal Democratic party decides on his successor.

Approval of the Liberal Democratic choice is a certainty since the party has a majority in both houses of Parliament. But considerable trading between rival factions may be necessary before agreement.

The new U. S.-Japan security pact went into force at a hurried ceremony, arranged secretly to foil plans of Japanese left-wingers to delay final action on the controversial treaty.

One Section of Nation Has Rainfall

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A large section of the country had rain today.

Precipitation was reported by the Chicago Weather Bureau over parts of the Midwest, Mississippi Valley, the South, in the Plains States and England.

Most of the rain began late Wednesday.

A tornado hit the village of Shawnee, Effingham County, Illinois Wednesday night. Several farm homes and other buildings were damaged. Utility service to many nearby communities was crippled.

Two electrical storms struck central Kentucky Wednesday. At least three persons died as a result of the storm. Lexington, Ky., has about 2 1/2 inches of rain during the storm.

Hailstones up to 3/4 inches in diameter were reported by the Weather Bureau near Decatur, Ill. Three-inch hail was reported near Sioux Falls, S.D. Wednesday night.

As the storm moved out of Illinois into Indiana, it generated strong winds that swooped into Terre Haute. At the fairgrounds there, some property damage was reported. Two persons were injured at a nearby trailer court when vehicles were upended.

Temperatures early today ran to seasonal form over most of the country.

Millsap Suit Scheduled Today

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A four million dollar suit against Hal Millsap Jr., a candidate for governor, and his father, goes before Chancellor Thomas P. Bull here today.

An identical suit in U. S. district court at Fort Smith was dismissed Tuesday by Judge John E. Miller on grounds the federal court lacked jurisdiction.

The suit, filed by 11 stockholders of the Millsap Oil & Gas Co., alleges that the Millsaps dissipated four million dollars of the firm's money. It asks that a receiver be named for the company and that its books be audited.

The Millsap company was chartered in Delaware, but its principal business is in Arkansas. Attorneys for the plaintiffs had said the suit would be pressed in whichever court—state or federal—had jurisdiction.

Millsap and his father have denied the charges in the suit. Millsap, one of four candidates opposing Gov. Orval E. Faubus for the Democratic nomination for governor, termed it "political maneuvering."

Thinks Nixon Not Capable of Presidency

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts says "I don't think we should turn this country over to Vice President Richard M. Nixon in this critical time."

Kennedy threw away a prepared speech at Camden, N. J., Wednesday night to launch his attack on Nixon, the probable Republican presidential candidate.

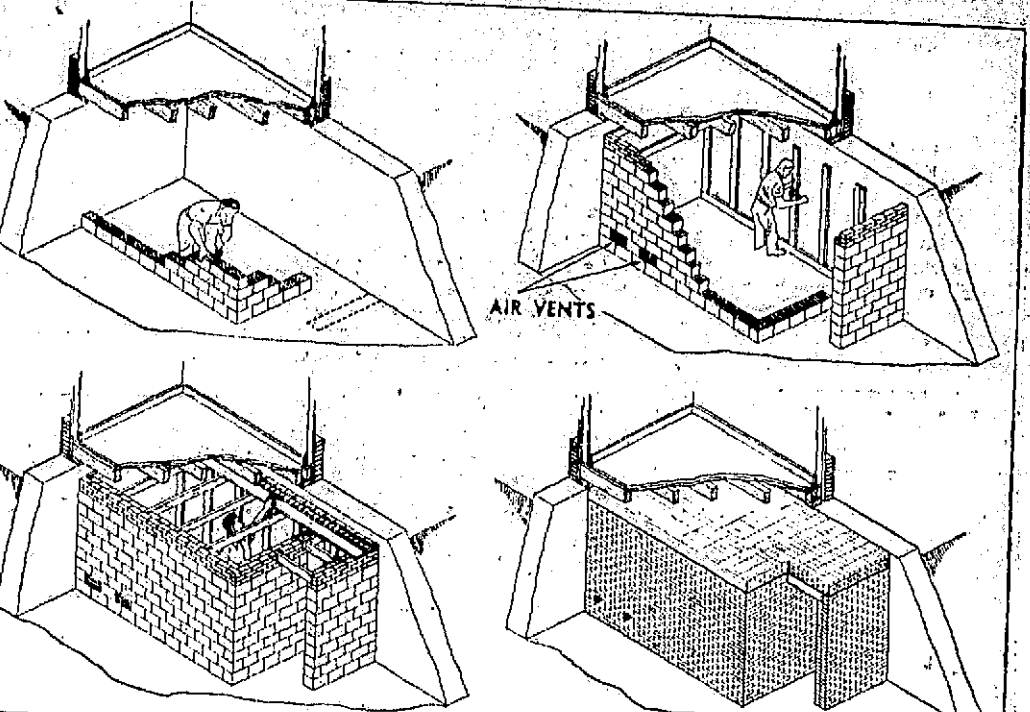

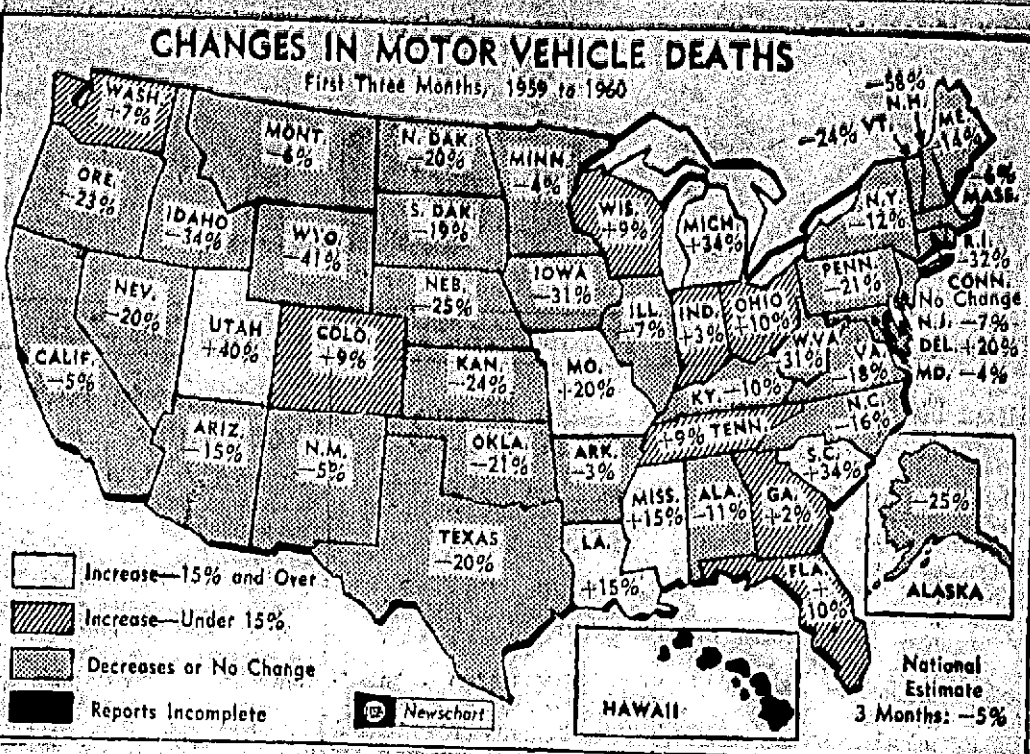

Kennedy said people on other continents quote men like Woodrow Wilson, Thomas Jefferson, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman. But, he said, they don't quote Nixon.

"We must elect a president who will make people get up in the morning and wonder what he did instead of what Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev did," Kennedy said.

One of Kennedy's strongest opponents for the Democratic nomination, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas took the Senate floor Wednesday to lash at administration foreign policy.

"There is a depressing lack of vital new ideas in our foreign policy," he said.

Johnson called for great international programs to stamp out

School Bill to Get Some New Life

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders today sought to breathe new life into a school construction bill apparently doomed to death by the House Rules Committee.

The committee took both Republican and Democratic leaders by surprise Wednesday by refusing to allow the House to seek a compromise with the Senate on school legislation. The two houses have passed widely differing bills on the subject.

With Congress rushing toward adjournment, the committee's action spells doom for the bill this year unless it can be prevailed upon to reconsider the matter, or the Senate agrees to pass the House bill in much its present form.

Election year politics loom large in efforts to revive the bill, which would provide federal grants to help states build schoolrooms.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, who would like to be the Democratic candidate for president, badly wants a school bill to bolster his bid for the nomination. His fellow Texan, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, would like to help him get it.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the probable Republican candidate, is also pushing for passage of a school bill, for no other reason than to deprive the Democrats of an issue in the forthcoming campaign.

Nixon conferred last week with House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana in an effort to get favorable committee action on the measure.

But in the 7-5 vote, all four committee Republicans joined three Southern Democrats to defeat the conference move supported by five other Democrats.

Only two courses remain open to backers of the legislation. Either they must prevail upon the committee to reconsider, or they must induce the Senate to abandon its own bill and act on the House measure.

Under the latter plan, the Senate would be expected to strike out a House-approved amendment denying federal funds to segregated schools, with the understanding that the House probably would agree to go along with that change.

Negro Charged in Slaying

MEMPHIS (AP)—A Negro man has been charged with first degree murder in the vicious slaying of his 18-year-old white co-worker.

Carl Kimbro, 36, was arrested yesterday as he worked at the service station where Walter Herbert Slawson was slain before dawn Sunday.

Slawson's body was found in a pool of blood at the rear of the station.

A heavy pipe that could have been the death weapon was found beside the body. About $200 had been taken from the cash register.

Sees Base as Economic Gain

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today a new intercontinental missile complex will be an economic gain for the Little Rock area, but he deplored the need for such facilities.

"My feeling is that I hate to see them built," he told newsmen "but if we have to have them—and we do—our area can benefit by their construction and the jobs needed to man them."

Faubus added: "Locating the missile base here will not make us any more of a target than we already are because of the Little Rock Air Force Base."

Arkansas Educator Dies in Kentucky

TELEPHONE TALK

Fred D. Gray, Wire Chief, Hope, Arkansas

Attention Prospective Homebuilders

One of the saddest duties of the Telephone Men in Hope is when he has to inform the owner of a beautiful new home that it will be necessary to run exposed wires in order to install the telephones.

Many of the new homes these days do not have attics nor space underneath the house where we can run our wires. For this reason, the time to plan for telephone service is when the house is first started, before the concrete slab is poured. The cost of the conduit, that is necessary to place the telephone wires in, is very little to pay to avoid running exposed wire in your new home.

Please call us at PR 7-2871 and we will be glad to help you plan your telephone service in your new home.

One Minute of Courtesy

It's been my experience that most folks in Hope try to answer their phone calls promptly. But in the summertime so many are busy outside — with gardening, yard work or just relaxing in the sun or under the stars — that it takes a little longer to get to the phone.

If you've ever just missed a call after running in from outside to answer the phone, you know how disappointing it is. Most folks can get to their telephones within a minute, even when they aren't in the house. One minute is about the time it takes for the phone to ring 10 times.

By waiting at least 10 rings before you hang up, you have a much better chance of getting your call through, especially when the person you're calling is not near the phone. In the long run, you'll save yourself the time and trouble of calling again, and your friends will certainly appreciate your courtesy and patience. So please remember to wait 10 rings — it takes just a minute.

Vacation Travel Tips

If you plan to go out of town on vacation, there are a couple of things you can do to make your trip more enjoyable and carefree.

First call ahead for reservations. Second, make arrangements with a relative or neighbor to keep an eye on your house while you're away. Give them your vacation address and phone number so they can reach you in an emergency.

Remember, too, Long Distance rates are lower all day on Sundays, and on weekdays after 6 p.m. And you save more than one-third when you call station-to-station.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Airman and His Girl At Odds Over Elopement

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE
Dear Helen Worden Erskine: I'm an Airman in the U.S. Air Force and have been engaged to a 17-year-old girl for one year. When I asked her mother 15 months ago if she would give her daughter to me, she said, "I thought I would be a mother." I thought I would be a mother.

The mother finally agreed to consent when my girl finishes high school and reaches 18. That was okay by me. My girl wants to elope and keep our marriage a secret (all she is 18). She says something will happen between us if we don't marry right away. I say if she loved me, she would wait for me to make the decision. I can't afford marriage now. I don't believe in deceiving her mother. How can I get this into her head? —Alman

Dear Airman: You're right and your girl is wrong. Aside from the economics, the deceit in it is bad for her character as well as yours. Stand by your guns.

Dear Helen Worden Erskine: My husband and I are in our early thirties, have three children and have lived in our present home five years. Our neighbor to the right, Mrs. Smith, is a bird lover. She feeds birds every day, rain, shine, hot, cold, sunny or cloudy. The sparrows win out. They roost on our fence and roof-top watching for Mrs. Smith. Soon after she and her husband moved in Mrs. Smith said if I ever had cause for complaint to speak directly to her. I did—about the sparrows. She was as nice as the birds. She said, "I wish you could see what those pesky sparrows do to my laundry. Our sidewalk four feet and air caves. We want to be neighborly. We like the community and have spent money improving our property. What shall I do? —Despairing Neighbor

Dear Despairing Neighbor: You could acquire a cat, but that would be a declaration of war. The wiser course would be to take Smith into camp. As a farmer, make a deliberate play for his friendship since he is the key to the situation. Find out his hobbies. Show an interest in them. Invite him and his wife to a neighborhood party. Make him a friend. He will help solve your problem.

Dear Helen Worden Erskine: I am 16. Saturday nights my girl friends and I attend a record hop. Last week a boy with whom I used to go steady drove me home. We came straight home and had a very nice conversation. It was extremely pleasant. My friends say this was not the proper thing to do—that it was a pick-up. I think it perfectly proper since I know the boy very well and so do my parents. Please give your opinion. —Puzzled

Dear Puzzled: So long as your parents approved, it was entirely proper to let a boy you already knew bring you home. The so-called friends are probably jealous.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Chance in a Million But This Was It

By GENE HANDSAKER
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Perhaps a one in a million chance caused Douglas Beane's bullet that killed a neighbor 18 months on mid kill a little neighbor girl, too.

The victim's mother who caused dismissal of a manslaughter charge against him is "probably one person in a million," says Beane.

"I don't know how I'd feel in such a situation," the 25-year-old man replied shop owner told a reporter Wednesday. "I have children. Only a person who believes wholeheartedly in God would have an attitude like hers."

Beane fired a .30-caliber carbine at a neighbor who popped his head out of a hole in his back yard in suburban Lynwood last Feb. 25. The neighbor died.

The bullet zinged on through a rusty corrugated tin fence and through the tarpapered 13-16-inch plywood wall of a house at the rear.

proper to let a boy you already knew bring you home. The so-called friends are probably jealous.

(Released by The Bell Syndicate)

It struck 4-year-old Donna Swart in the back as she watched television at the neighbor's home while her mother was at work. Several weeks later, after an operation and sufficient apparent recovery, she could play with Beane's two young sons. Then she died.

Superior Court Judge Eville J. Younger dismissed the manslaughter charge Tuesday after reading a letter from her mother, Mrs. Frank Swart. It said in part:

"I do not believe any good purpose could be served by insisting that this case be tried. Doubtless will punish himself 1,000 times more than any law could do."

For the good of everyone and for our own peace of mind, we feel that the case should be dismissed.

Junior Legion Team Is Still Going Great

Hope's Jr. Legion Baseball team, pictured in today's edition is the culmination of six to seven years of baseball experience in the local Little League and Pony League for most of the players on this team. In fact, only two players, recently moved into our city have not come up through our Baseball program. A program that has been made possible by local merchants and individuals and has at present graduated 2,100 boys from its ranks over the past several years.

This Jr. Legion (Big League) team was begun in 1953 under its present set up, being financed by the Hope Star, Rotary Club, Citizens Bank and Anthony Lib. Co. These sponsors carried the financial load for the team entirely until last year when they were given help by a number of the Y-M-C-A merchants.

This season, when it became imperative that new uniforms be purchased, local merchants "Chipped in" very graciously with donations for the purchase of these uniforms, with the Hope Star, Citizens Bank and Rotary Club remaining as the permanent sponsors that have kept the team going over the past several years. A team of boys in this age group is more expensive to sponsor than an entire league of smaller boys because of much higher cost in equipment, uniforms and travel expenses.

Each player wishes to extend his appreciation to the folks that have made this team possible and each will do his best to represent you in the best possible manner.

Thanks go to the following donors for the excellent uniforms that the boys are wearing: Perry's Truck Stop, Stevens Grocer Co., Moore Bros. Mkt., Cox Bros. Foundry, Bramlett Oil Co., Crescent Drug Co., Harold Hendrix Pulpmold, Trading Post, Hope Builders, Joe's City Bakery, Tol-E-Text, Dean's Truck Stop, Baker's Easy Pay, Coca Cola Bottling Co., Hope Auto Co., Hope Hwy. Co., Kiwanis Club, Norman Moore, O. A. Graves, John Burke, Travis Ward, Kelly Walton, E. J. Whitman, Ambros Robinson and "Pony" Reeves, Sr.

If you haven't seen these boys play ball, you're missing something. Under the capable management of Jim Edwards and Joe Patterson, these youngsters have developed into one of the finest Baseball Clubs that Hope has produced in some time. They are presently riding a 7 game winning streak.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) - The Houston City Council voted today to annex the largest city in the world in area even though Mayor Lewis Cutler called the idea "preposterous."

The council voted to annex about 1,100 square miles, which is everything not annexed by some other Harris County city. The annexation would give Houston an area of 1,560 square miles.

A second and final reading of the annexation ordinance will be held within about 30 days.

On the basis of preliminary census figures Houston is the sixth largest city in the nation in population with 932,680 residents, an increase of 56.4 per cent since 1950. The population of the Houston metropolitan area is estimated at 1,232,179.

Cutler said that Houston "with over 450 square miles and within four square miles of being as large as Los Angeles, has plenty of room in which to grow."

Los Angeles, with an area of 455 square miles, is the largest city in area in the nation. It has 2,451,862 residents and its metropolitan area, Los Angeles County, has 5,887,246 residents.

Every Player Comes Through for Pirates

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Who's getting the job done for the Pittsburgh Pirates in this National League race? Forget it. The question is "who ain't?"

They have the majors' top winner, Vern Law (11-2); Handyman Elroy Face and comeback guy Bob Friend on the pitching staff. And they have four of the top 10 hitters in the league plus the No. 2 man in RBI, Roberto Clemente, with 49.

Frank scattered eight hits and took the major league lead in shutouts with his fourth in a 5-0 victory over St. Louis Wednesday night. The Bucs had 11 hits—with Dick Groat (4-for-5) gaining the NL bat lead at .351; Clemente (.328) doubling home two runs, and Bob Skinner (.323) bringing the clincher across with a first-inning single.

It was Pittsburgh's seventh victory in eight games protecting a 3½-game bulge over second place Milwaukee. The come-alive Braves made it five in a row with a 7-4 victory over third place San Francisco's fast skidding Giants.

Philadelphia defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-3, after filing away a 7-0 decision in the completion of Tuesday's suspended game. Los Angeles and Cincinnati were rained out.

In the American League, the New York Yankees rolled into a 1½-game lead with their sixth straight success, 7-3 at Detroit. The Chicago White Sox defeated second place Baltimore 3-1. Cleveland beat Washington 1-0 and Kansas City got past Boston 2-1.

Friend gave up only one extra-base hit—Daryl Spencer's second-inning double—and didn't walk a man while winning his third in a row for a 9-3 record.

The Cards' Larry Jackson (9-7) lost his second in a row—both 5-0 decisions—after winning eight straight.

Milwaukee made it eight out of nine as Billy Bruton, who tagged an inside-the-park homer, Joe Adcock and Johnny Logan each drove in two runs. The Braves had 13 hits off three pitchers while sending Johnny Antonelli (3-5) to his fifth loss in a row.

Lew Burdette (8-2) needed Don McMahon's help when the Giants scored three in the eighth with two out, but won his fifth straight.

The Phils won the regularly scheduled game in a four-run fifth capped by rookie Tony Curry's

Yanks Defeat Tigers; Wynn Hurls 2-Hitter

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Whoever started that talk about Early Wynn calling it quits should have started it sooner. That's all it took for the angry right-hander to show there's life in the old guy yet, after losing five in a row.

Wynn, last season's pitcher of the year as a 22-game winner for Chicago's American League champion White Sox, bounced back with the 13th two-hitter of his 20-year career for a 3-1 victory over Baltimore Wednesday night. It was the 40-year-old veteran's 274th victory, tops among active pitchers.

While the White Sox were making one-on-one homer, Rookie Tony Gonzalez also homered.

Johnny Buzhardt (3-4) and the Phils had Tuesday's game won before the curfew sounded after eight frames. The Cubs added a ninth-inning run against Robin Roberts Wednesday night. Joe Schaffernoth (0-2) lost it.

ing it two in a row over the second place Orioles, the first place New York Yankees skipped into a 1½ game lead by whipping Detroit 7-3 for their sixth straight victory.

Cleveland beat Washington 1-0 as Ted Bowsfield aimed his first major league shutout with a five-hitter. Kansas City got past Boston 2-1.

In the National League, right-hander Bob Friend took the major league shutout lead with his fourth shutout, an eight-hit job, as first place Pittsburgh defeated St. Louis 6-0. Second place Milwaukee hammered San Francisco 7-4.

Philadelphia defeated Chicago's Cubs 6-3 after putting away a 7-0 decision in the completion of Tuesday's suspended game. Los Angeles and Cincinnati were rained out.

Wynn (3-4) gave up only a first-inning single by leadoff man Marv Breeding and an eighth-inning single by pinch-hitter Clint Courtney.

The White Sox got their three in the third off loser Jack Fisher (5-5).

The Yankees, winning 13 of their last 14 decisions, stayed hot in their old manner—with the help of a guy off the bench, Kent Hadley, subbing for the injured Bill Skowron at first base, blasted his second and third home runs for a New York's first three runs off third-inning run off loser Frank Paul Foylack (1-5), who lost his clinch-hitter in a row. Roger Maris, re-homers by Rocky Colavito and Al Kaline.

The Indians, also held to five hits, beat Bill Fischer (2-3). Bowsfield (3-2), a lefty recently acquired from Boston, gained his first complete game in 10 starts since Sept. 1, 1958.

Nixon Ends Tour in Texas and Dakotas

Editor's Note: Arthur Edson, who has traveled with all the presidential hopefuls, here reports on four days with Vice President Nixon. Your attention is particularly directed to the last six paragraphs, which deal with a transmission error in Tuesday's story on Nixon's economic speech.

BY ARTHUR EDSON

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has wound up a four-day trip that took him deep into Texas and far up in the Dakotas.

And those who tagged along soon got the feeling that this was a shakedown cruise for the real thing, a practice run for the presidential campaign that is to come.

The travel arrangements encouraged this belief.

Here was Nixon in his own chartered, two-colored plane. It's the special executive job, with couches, desks and plenty of working space.

Here were a couple of dozen reporters traveling in another plane, landing just ahead of him as is usually done during a campaign.

Preparations were so good that at every stop a hand was out to greet him.

Nixon hates to speak from a

Wants Bill to Okay Wiretapping

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) wants Congress to pass a bill legalizing wire tapping by state police authorities.

Failure to pass the bill, the former Senate Rackets Committee chairman said last night, would be "a windfall of immeasurable benefit to organized crime."

The measure would permit wire tapping if authorized in advance by a court.

McClellan and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) said they would team up at the next Senate Judiciary Committee meeting to try to force a vote on the bill, sponsored by Keating.

Text. He thinks it comes between him and his audience. But when he had what he thought were major pronouncements on agriculture and economic growth, he had his speech carefully written out. That's the way he plans to do it when the campaign really gets rolling.

But it wasn't simply the physical arrangements.

Nixon still won't say he has the nomination locked up, although he did shyly confess Tuesday that if he were a betting man he might risk a little capital on it. He didn't say where he could find anyone to bet against him, or what the odds would be if he could.

But while Democratic hopefuls joust with each other Nixon can turn to such items as:

1. His vice presidential running mate. He refuses to give any names, or to comment on any names given him. But he has said he wants a man who is loyal, who is willing to work with him and who shares his thinking on foreign affairs. "Here," he said, "there must be basic agreement."

2. His keeping well informed on what the administration is up to. Once the nomination is in the bag, Nixon said Tuesday, he expects to be told of every major statement coming out. "Generally," he said, "we'll have pretty good coordination."

Possibly no politician of our time has been so adept at turning what could be a political disaster into a political asset.

The Venezuelan incident is a good example. Many a politician might consider this riot a damaging blow to his career. But Nixon refers to it in almost every talk. And as he explains how he was spit upon, and how his wife's pretty red dress was covered with spit, he invariably gets a sympathetic reaction.

This is what Nixon himself calls turning a minus into a plus.

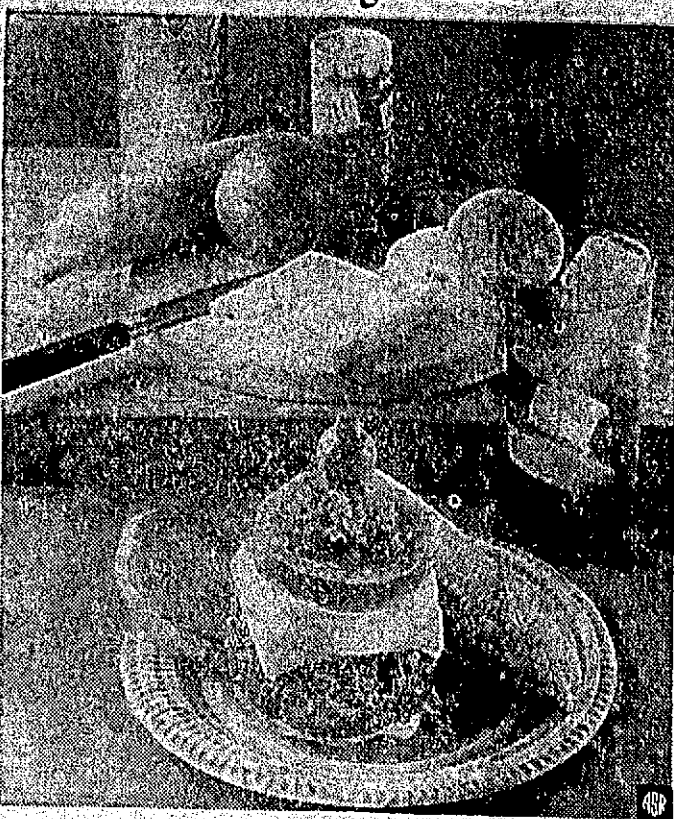

Possibly the biggest surprise though is in his treatment of Democrats.

In the old days no one whacked the Democratic party as soundly and as enthusiastically as Nixon.

Now, possibly because he covets and needs a lot of Democratic votes if he expects to win in November, he treats them almost leniently.

That's why an Associated Press

Totem Burger Treat

Tan them and top them and tote them away, that's how to make burgers the totem pole way.

First break up your Ac-cent-sprinkled meat in a mixing bowl. Ac-cent brings out all the good broiled-beef zest in your hamburger meat, makes it spurt new juiciness and rich, lean beef flavor. Shape the meat into patties and broil to doneness over a charcoal grill lined with foil for easy cleaning.

Pop a slice of cheese on top, a buttered burger bun underneath, and build a lofty skyscraper of tomato, onion, relish and olive. Add corn on the cob, hot and buttery, thanks to its jacket of heavy-duty aluminum foil.

Totem Burgers

2 pounds ground beef 8 slices (8 ounces) process American cheese
2 teaspoons Ac-cent 8 Hamburger buns
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Break up meat with fork in mixing bowl. Sprinkle Ac-cent, salt and pepper over entire surface of meat. Toss gently with fork to distribute seasonings. Shape into 8 patties. Pan broil, broil or grill to desired doneness. Just before hamburgers are done, top with cheese. Butter each hamburger bun and cover bottom half with lettuce. Top with hamburger patty, spread with mustard. Top with onion and tomato slices, pickle relish and olive. Repeat for each serving. Yield: 8 servings.

Says State Department Negligent

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The picture of the State Department which emerges from senatorial quizzing on the U2 spy plane and the Tokyo riots is more than just the poor judgment now admitted. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and his department showed a lack of attention to vital details and a failure to understand both human reactions and Communist tactics.

When the Central Intelligence Agency sent the U2 on its mission over Russia—just two weeks before the summit conference—it was taking a chance, since the plane might be downed and American spying exposed.

The result could have been guessed in human terms. Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who had been preaching good will toward President Eisenhower and the United States, would be outraged. And no wonder.

Such an incident would make him look like a sap before the whole Communist world. While he had been pumping up hope for the summit meeting, the United States was violating Soviet territory.

This goes far to explain his violent reaction when the plane was downed and the pilot captured. He wrecked the summit, called off Eisenhower's trip to Russia, and began a campaign of ridicule against him.

transmission error in his economic speech Tuesday was especially unfortunate.

Referring to administration critics, Nixon asked: "What sort of society are they proposing?"

It came out: "What sort of Soviet are they proposing?"

Nixon is doing no such name calling now. At this stage of the game at least, he's harsh mainly on Nikita Khrushchev and the Communists.

It might have been expected of the State Department—with the summit meeting so close—that it would have been on top of every detail involving Russian relations.

But Herter told the Senate Foreign Relations committee that neither he nor Eisenhower knew specifically of the disastrous spy flight although they had approved the spy program in general.

Eisenhower was to have gone on to Japan after his tour of Russia. There was good reason to believe that, even if he had a Russian triumph, he might have met with violence and riots in Tokyo.

Communists, laborites, nationalists and even some conservatives were opposed to the new American-Japanese defense treaty. There had been mounting demonstrations against it for more than a year.

This alone—since Eisenhower's safety might be endangered and American prestige damaged—would have been reason enough to call off his Tokyo trip once Khrushchev had canceled his Russian visit. It would have been based on the idea of taking no unnecessary chances.

When Vice President Richard M. Nixon made his Latin American trip in the early part of 1958—and ran into anti-American riots—Khrushchev had just become premier. He had not yet entered his love-America phase.

The Communists were blamed in big part for the anti-American riots against Nixon. That's understandable. The Communist world then was trying to embarrass the United States every way it could.

By the time Eisenhower made his Latin American trip this year, Khrushchev had visited him here, the summit meeting was just a few weeks away, and Khrushchev was soft-pedaling anti-Americanism.

It is probably more than accidental that Eisenhower, unlike Nixon, ran into almost no anti-Americanism from Latin American Communists. Moscow, because of the mood prevailing at the time, probably told them to go easy on Eisenhower.

So, if the summit were not a bust and Eisenhower made a triumphal tour of Russia, it could

Names Assessor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval B. Faubus has appointed Mrs. Killye Sykes of Ashdown to be Little River County tax assessor to succeed her brother, W. J. Joyner, who died June 10.

He reappointed Charles S. McNew III of Pine Bluff to the Arkansas Boys' Industrial School Board and Roy Eugene Mathis of Texarkana to the state Chiropractic Examiners' Board.

have been expected Moscow would tell Communists everywhere to pile down when Eisenhower arrived, including Tokyo.

That was about the only reason the State Department should have had for thinking Eisenhower might not run into trouble in Japan. But that reason went out the window once Khrushchev turned on Eisenhower.

Instead, the State Department could have realized the year-long history of Tokyo riots was a signal to expect more of the same when Eisenhower arrived, particularly since now Moscow could be expected to stir up the Japanese Communists against him.

All these obvious things apparently failed to penetrate the State Department thinking.

Stowers said the firm bought the cotton on an "in the field" basis yesterday on a bid of 30.4 cents a pound.

Chapter XXXIV

York turned about and headed for the street door, staggering a little, and stepped outside. McQueen bolted the door behind him. He dropped his gun back into its holster and came to the doorway of his quarters and stood there, the words running in his mind to order Dorcas home. They stayed unsaid. She would not go, and he knew it.

He could hear that clock hammering on. He searched with his eyes for the clock; it must be midnight or past by now. He remembered he'd found the clock run down when he'd come back here tonight and he'd wound it and set it by guess. What matter what time it was, anyway? Five minutes, 10 minutes, 15 minutes this side of doomsday.

Guiley lifted his head. "Listen!" he said.

McQueen could hear them, too, their boots shuffling out there on the street. They were not coming with yells and shouts; they had no wish to arouse a town that might stand beside the law, whether asked or not. The amateur firemen who always showed to clutter up a scene of conflagration.

"Dorcas," he said sharply, "you stretch out on the floor face down. And stay there till it's finished. Understand?"

"I can handle a gun," she said. "On the floor," he insisted. "That's my order."

He turned back into his office and went to a rifle rack and took one down and tested the lever action. He found Guiley beside him. Guiley stood straight, no fear showing on him, and he wondered if Guiley understood that within the next few minutes they'd likely both be dead. He wondered if he looked as unconcerned as Guiley. And then he knew that such must be so, for he was done with fear. That had come from thinking about Ry Buckner. Forget yourself, and you forgot fear.

He jerked his head toward the rifle rack. "Help yourself, if you're so inclined," he said to Guiley. Outside that shuffle of boots came close and closer, with Halchek almost to the door. He ran his hand along the straight barrel of the rifle. "A revolver is maybe better for close work," he said, "but I rather fancy this tonight. There's something about a rifle I like."

Buckner had stood stock still in Halchek's cellar, the lamp in his hand and Pru's scream rising until he said sharply, "Get hold of yourself!" She ceased screaming as abruptly as though he had slapped her.

"Sorry, Ry," she said. "Too much today, I guess." She let herself onto the ladder and came down to a stand close to him and looked to one side of the cellar. She shuddered. "I could only see his boots before. He's dead, isn't he?"

"No, Pru," he said. "He's alive. That's what makes him Tull's ace in the hole."

Yet Lark Rigby looked more dead than alive, propped up with his back to the dirt wall.

Then Rigby knew, for Buckner was holding the lamp so that the light fell on him and Pru; and Rigby said, "Water—" in a harsh, croaking voice.

Potatoes were heaped here, and some cases canned goods, these things beyond Rigby's reach because of the shortness of the chain. Buckner placed the lamp on top of one of the cases and said to Pru, "Get him some water, will you. Quick!" Pru went back up the ladder. Buckner moved to Rigby and knelt beside him. A tin can lay near Rigby. It had held water once, but it was empty now. "Easy," Buckner said. "It will just be a minute." He could hear Pru working the pump at the kitchen sink above. "Don't try to talk," he cautioned Rigby.

Pru came back into the cellar carrying a pitcher of water. Under her arm she had a stale-looking loaf of bread she had located somewhere. She handed the pitcher to Buckner, and he held it to Rigby's lips. The man sucked in the water in great, noisy gulps; some of it ran down his shirt front. Buckner pulled the pitcher away from him, and Rigby fought feebly to hang onto it. "More!" he croaked.

Buckner thrust the loaf of bread at him instead, and Rigby seized this and tore away a chunk and crammed it into his mouth. Buckner gave him the rest of the water then, and Rigby drank this

Louisiana Okays School Closing

BATON ROUGE (AP)—A segregation bill giving the governor the option of closing any or all public schools to meet the threat of integration goes to the Louisiana Senate today.

The key measure swept through the House 82-0 yesterday. Louisiana lawmakers are setting the stage for whatever may come next fall. A federal court has ordered New Orleans schools to desegregate.

Reds Accuse West in Disarms Talks

GENEVA (AP)—The five Communist disarmament delegations today accused the West of trying to wreck the 10-nation disarmament talks.

In a joint statement, issued after a two-minute meeting of the conference, they charged the United States and its allies are evading businesslike discussions on disarmament.

There was no immediate Western comment.

and wolfed more of the bread. He said, then in a voice much more his own, "He left me a little grub and a can full of water, but that's a long gone. How long! A day—a week? Nothing but night down here, around the clock, and nobody stirring in the house until you came. It's Ry Buckner, ain't it? Heard you were out. And Prudence Lang."

"We nearly missed you," Buckner said. "We nearly left without looking into the cellar."

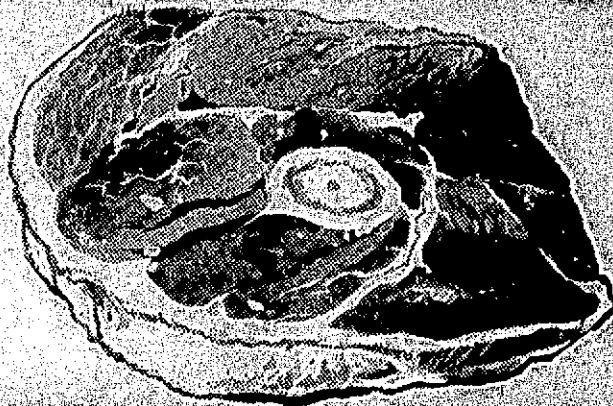

"I could hear you moving around. First I thought it was Sam come back. Then I made out there was two of you, and I began hoping you might be a couple of the crew. Sam hadn't let the crew in on this, so there was a chance you two might be good news. I was too dry to do any shouting, so I drummed against the post with my feet, still not sure whether I might be fetching friend or enemy. Have you any idea how long I've been down here?"

"Probably since night before last, Lark. You say you expected Sam back. That means you know he put you here."

Rigby nodded. "This started with a run-in I had with Duke Jordan at the Strip fence. Sam was with me, and Duke used a gun on me."

Lumbermen Fight For Freight Rates

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A group of Arkansas lumbermen plans to seek more favorable freight rates for their products.

W. S. Fox of Pine Bluff was elected chairman of the Arkansas Lumber Shippers yesterday. The new group is composed of representatives of 11 lumber or wood products firms, the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission and State Chamber of Commerce.

A committee will analyze freight rates and report later. The group needs to seek reductions in what it regards as discriminatory rates from Arkansas territory east of the Mississippi River and north of the Ohio River.

Budget Man Pleads for Spending Cut

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maurice Stans, the man who counts the billions in the nation's budget, has pleaded with Congress to lay off big spending programs.

President Eisenhower's 1961 budget, said Budget Director Stans Tuesday, is in "acute jeopardy" of becoming unbalanced.

If all or most of the measures now pending in Congress are enacted, Stans said, "they will shatter the hopes of millions of taxpayers that in due time there might be tax reduction and reform, while meeting our solemn obligation to reduce the staggering 290-billion-dollar public debt."

Stans made his plea in a letter to Rep. John Taber of New York, ranking Republican of the House Ways and Means Committee. Its release seemed timed for maximum effect as Congress jostled into the final weeks before adjournment.

Eisenhower's 80-million-dollar budget for the 1961 fiscal year, which starts July 1, provides a surplus of four billions. But Stans said that was forecast on the basis of holding spending to the President's recommended levels and enactment of higher postal rates and gasoline taxes.

The higher postal rates have been buried by a House committee in this election year. Congress raised the gasoline tax one cent last year, but has done nothing to meet Eisenhower's request for another half cent this year.

Stans singled out as budget-busting items the lack of postal rate increases, the proposed pay increase for federal workers, extra defense and welfare legislation, and House approval of tax deductions to self-employed persons for pension savings.

The Senate, perhaps to forestall just such attacks as Stans' this week voted to increase federal tax revenue rather than cut it. It extended corporation and excise taxes and voted to add another 650 million dollars by tightening restrictions in tax laws. However, the fate of these amendments was dubious as the bill headed to

Drinking Seniors to Graduate

SOLVAY, N. Y. (AP)—Seniors at Solvay High School, some of whom drank liquor at a class picnic that turned into a damaging brawl, will have graduation exercises, despite a recommendation to the contrary.

The Board of Education voted Tuesday night to allow the graduation to be held Saturday.

However, a senior breakfast, scheduled for Friday, was canceled.

Mary Pirro, board president who had suggested that the graduation exercises be canceled, rushed out halfway through the meeting and burst into tears. School officials asked her to return.

"Everybody is blaming me," Mrs. Pirro sobbed.

Mrs. Pirro said she understood girls smuggled liquor in their handbags to the picnic at a country park near Syracuse.

A park official said the pupils rioted down a bridge, damaged a toilet, and smashed windows.

The board said the school superintendent would meet individually with the parents of 12 pupils accused of misconduct.

Some Showers in Parts of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Scattered thundershowers fell early today over parts of the plains area, upper Great Lakes the Mississippi Valley and the Atlantic Coast states.

Precipitation in Atlanta, Ga., amounted to .79 of an inch, reported to the Chicago Weather Bureau office.

A pair of cloudy skies were mostly the case elsewhere. From the deserts in the extreme northern New England area to the deserts in the Southwest, the temperature range was 101 to 63 degrees at midnight.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—James Heard, 64, of Marshall, Ark., was killed yesterday while operating a road grader on a new stretch of highway M18.

The Missouri Highway Patrol said a truck hit the machine while Heard was backing it across the road.

Faubus Calls Off Meet of Candidates

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus has called off a scheduled appearance with the other four candidates in the Arkansas governor's race at a Fayetteville rally tomorrow night.

The rally is sponsored by the 3rd Congressional District Young Democrats.

The governor's office said Faubus will be represented at the rally by J. Orville Cheney.

Recently, Cheney resigned as state revenue commissioner to help in the governor's bid for a fourth term.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, Joe C. Hardin, Hal Millsap Jr. and H. E. Williams — the other candidates in the governor's race — plan to attend the rally.

Faubus' schedule tomorrow calls for a noon speech to a meeting of the Governor's Commission on Aging at Little Rock, and an appearance at a picnic at Aubrey in Lee County later.

The governor and Bennett announced their radio-TV kickoff speeches. Bennett will make a statewide 30-minute broadcast at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, while Faubus' campaign opener will be telecast statewide from 8 to 9 p.m. on July 1.

Leftists Riot in Japan for Treaty Ban

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP) — An 11th-hour leftist demonstration to stave off ratification of the U.S.-Japan security pact lost steam tonight as a mob of 40,000 began wearily dispersing.

The snake-dancing columns shouted "Down with Kishi!" and "Dissolve Parliament!" as they circled the Parliament building and thundered past the Foreign Ministry and Tokyo police headquarters after a morning of short strikes. But a predicted turnout of 100,000 failed to materialize, and by nightfall the demonstration apparently had fizzled.

The controversial pact, which gives the United States bases in Japan for another 10 years and promises American defense of this former enemy nation against outside attack, needed only U.S. Senate approval and the exchange of ratification instruments to become law.

The exchange of documents in Tokyo is expected to come within hours after the Senate approval and President Eisenhower's signature in Honolulu.

Plans for delivery of the ratification documents were surrounded with secrecy in an effort to thwart the desperate leftist opponents of the treaty. Students, laborers and Socialists were reported planning to blockade U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II and Foreign Minister Aichihiro Fujiyama in their homes to prevent them getting together to complete the formalities.

Premier Nobusuke Kishi's Cabinet put its final approval to the pact late Tuesday night, and Emperor Hirohito affixed the great imperial seal to it soon after. To prevent leftist interference, the documents were taken secretly to each Cabinet member individually and then to the Emperor.

Extremist students and labor unions staged a giant transport strike which tied up the nation's rail, bus and streetcar communications for four hours this morning.

Government workers carried out a four-hour sitdown in front of their offices in Tokyo, and coal miners left the pits for 24 hours. Many stores closed in support of the leftist campaign.

The leftists demanded that Kishi resign and dissolve Parliament to prevent the exchange of the treaty ratifications and force a general election in which the alliance with the United States would be the chief issue.

Mastermind of Brink's Robbery Free

BOSTON (AP) — Joseph J. (Specs) O'Keefe, 51, who helped mastermind the $1,219,000 Brink's robbery, was declared a free man in Superior Court today — so far as the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is concerned.

The dapper convict who has spent nine of the last 10 years in jail was given two concurrent terms of three to four years in jail for his role on the nation's biggest cash robbery. However, Judge Felix Forte found O'Keefe already had served more time than that and directed his discharge.

Dist. Atty. Garrett H. Byrne told Judge Forte — who presided at the Brink's trial — it was his belief O'Keefe should not serve one more day in prison.

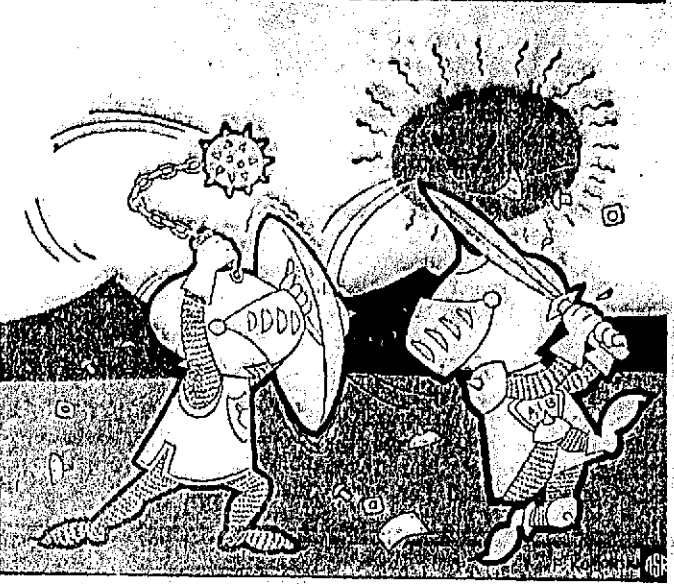

Federal, state and local law enforcers freely admit the Brink's robbery Jan. 17, 1950 might not have been solved without O'Keefe's help.

It was on the testimony of the Boston hoodlum that eight men were sentenced to life for the robbery. O'Keefe said 11 men took an active part in the fabulous haul.

Two died before the trial started in 1956.

Still outstanding against O'Keefe is a Pennsylvania charge of possessing firearms. He was released from that state to testify as a state witness in the Brink's case.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Keep Your Iron Guard Up

In hot, humid weather, keep your iron guard up. When you think hot weather takes the starch out of you, it may be iron you're losing. This nutrient is an essential part of the armor that guards you from wilting, weather or no. You lose iron through your pores when you are exposed to heat, scientists say. Their findings boil down to this: When the world is steaming hot, your need for iron may jump. For when man perspires, he loses iron.

Nutrition scientists at the University of Illinois and Cornell University scoured up many clues in their search for an answer to how climate affects the kind of food men should eat each day. To find out if essential vitamins, minerals, or protein are lost through perspiration, they analyzed the sweat of men and women exposed to heat. Only iron losses were of consequence nutritionally. In hot, humid weather, these shot up three to ten times above normal.

This finding in sweat is the exception to an iron-olad ruler: Under normal temperature and humidity, our bodies hoard iron. Since we lose iron when we perspire, keep your iron guard up by including these rich sources of iron with the foods you eat each day: Liver, red meat, enriched or whole grain bread and cereal, egg yolk, deep green leafy vegetables, dried fruit.

Steal Grandmother's Formula for World's Best Fried Chicken

The old ideal for culinary perfection, "just like mother used to make," is rapidly being supplanted by a still higher goal, "even better than grandmother used to make." Grandmother's cooking was known not only for its excellence but its reliability: she got the best results every time.

If you're cooking a fried chicken, for instance, how is it possible to surpass grandmother's achievement? Well, you start with a leaf from grandmother's book—a can of evaporated milk. This staple, which grandmother may have depended on to get her sure-fire results, is as good as ever, perhaps even better. Evaporated milk will help you cook a golden, evenly coated chicken every time as well as to prepare a rich, creamy gravy to go with it.

Chickens are also better than ever. These days, the broiler industry raises birds scientifically to produce chickens that are tender, meaty and deliciously flavored. Grandmother's chicken probably couldn't hold a candle to the ones you can buy now at every supermarket.

GOLDEN FRIED CHICKEN AND CREAMY GRAVY

1 tall can (1 1/2 cups) evaporated milk
1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons flour, divided
2 1/2 teaspoons salt, divided
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon pepper

1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in serving pieces
Fat for frying
1 cup stock from cooking giblets
Cooked chopped giblets

Pour evaporated milk into shallow pan. Combine 1/2 cup of the flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons of the salt, paprika and pepper in another pan. Dip chicken pieces in evaporated milk, then roll in flour mixture. Reserve remaining evaporated milk for Creamy Gravy. Preheat fat 1/2-inch deep in skillet. Brown chicken in hot fat, about 30 minutes, or until tender, turning to cook evenly. Remove chicken; keep hot. Drain off all but 2 tablespoons of the fat in skillet. Add remaining 2 tablespoons of the flour and 1/2 teaspoon of the salt and stir until smooth. Add stock and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Add reserved evaporated milk and giblets and heat to serving temperature. Serve with hot cooked rice. YIELD: 4 servings.

Points to Assessments in Madison

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

H. E. Williams charged today that residents of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' home county of Madison have tax advantages that residents of most of the rest of the state don't.

He cited a recent report which said that Madison was next to last among the counties in ratio of tax assessment to true value and declared that "while the rest of the state was shouldering the high cost of Faubusism, it appears that the neighbors of the governor do not have to pay such high taxes."

Faubus and another fourth term opponent, Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, today announced plans for radio-TV "kickoff" speeches.

They didn't say whether they later also would have traditional campaign openers before outdoor audiences.

Bennett will make a statewide 30-minute broadcast at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Faubus will telecast statewide from 8 to 9 p.m. on July 1.

The Faubus camp announced that the governor won't appear at a 3rd Congressional District political rally at Fayetteville tomorrow night because of a conflicting engagement.

He will be represented by J. Orville Cheney, who is on leave of absence as state revenue commissioner, to work in the Faubus campaign.

Faubus' four opponents plan to attend the rally.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — H. E. Williams today called "quite interesting" the fact that the tax assessment percentage in Gov. Orval E. Faubus' home county of Madison has been reported the next to lowest in Arkansas.

"While the rest of the state was shouldering the high cost of Faubusism, it appears the neighbors of the governor do not have to pay such high taxes," the Faubus opponent for governor said.

Williams did not give the source of his assessment information but his figure of 7.74 per cent of true value for Madison County came from a weekend report of the Missouri-Arkansas Assn. of Tax Representatives, an organization of utility and railroad companies owning property in the state.

The association's figures differ from those of the state Assessment Co-ordination Division.

Williams said that "naturally the fourth-term candidate will claim he had nothing to do with" the Madison County situation.

"One thing we can be certain of is that he did engineer the whole scheme of raising property taxes despite the fact that he promised the people he would not do so when running against Governor Cherry for a second term."

"Arkansas need never expect tax relief until it first rids itself of the dictatorship of Faubusism. Mr. Faubus has led in raising taxes higher than any other governor in the history of our state."

Puture jap, U.S. Alliance Is Uncertain

Editor's Note: Despite opposition from some Japanese, a new U.S.-Japanese treaty has been effective. John M. Hightower, veteran AP reporter of diplomatic affairs, herewith tells about the speed of the ratification and interprets the outlook ahead as seen by Washington observers.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States was legally assured today of the right to maintain military bases in Japan for another 10 years. But the continuing Japanese political crisis rendered uncertain the future of the alliance between the two countries. A new security treaty binding Tokyo and Washington in an anti-Communist partnership became effective with unprecedented speed. Ratification documents were exchanged formally in Tokyo only seven hours after the U.S. Senate voted 90-2 Wednesday afternoon to approve the pact. Japan had completed the necessary preliminaries last Saturday despite riotous opposition within that country to continuance of U.S. bases there.

But the successful conclusion of the pact is costing Premier Nobusuke Kishi his position. He said he is resigning, and an aide said he will step out as soon as stability can be restored.
U.S. officials have expressed confidence that the violent opposition commands the support of only a minority of the Japanese people. They say they are sure that when the controversy is finally resolved, Japan will remain firm in its ties with the United States.
They expect democracy in Japan to survive the crisis.
But behind the scenes of official Washington there is nonetheless considerable apprehension about the course of events in Japan during the next few months. This anxiety seems certain to persist until, through new elections promised by Kishi, the Japanese people have made known their attitude toward the issues sharply posed in the last few troubled weeks.
The treaty was brought into force with extraordinary speed according to a secret plan, carefully guarded against any advance disclosure. The State Department said the arrangements were made in advance of President Eisenhower's departure for the Far East 10 days ago.

Living Facts Around Areas of Arkansas

Life In Arkansas
By BOB HARRING
Associated Press Staff Writer
The lock on the vault of the new Arkansas State Bank at Siloam Springs is working fine now. But it was with some embarrassment that officials found at the bank's open house recently that they couldn't open the 1,000-pound door to show off the vault.
They explained that someone had mistakenly locked the combination prior to the open house. Only the first and last figures of the combination could be located. It took a telephone call to St. Louis to get the others.
But they finally got the door open—several hours after the open house.
First grader David McClain of Newark, near Batesville, asked to name the four seasons, responded:
Squirrel season, hunting season, deer season and hog killing.
To his curious mother, Mrs. Charlie McClain, he explained his

Correspondent Dies

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Howard (Slim) Suttle, 52, veteran Washington correspondent for southern newspapers, died today after he was stricken at his hotel here.
A native of Louisiana, Suttle moved to McComb in 1930 as city editor of the old McComb Daily Journal. He went to Washington in 1940 and opened a news bureau there.
For a time he represented the C. B. Palmer Arkansas newspaper chain.
Suttle had been in Jackson and McComb for the past several days. Survivors include a brother, Spurgeon S. Suttle of Little Rock, Ark.
fourth season this way: "I needed one more and hog killing was all I could think of."
Wally Briscoe, general chairman of the Miss Pine Bluff Beauty Pageant, naturally did a double take when he saw the response of Gudrun Pastelenecker to a query for her dimensions. She replied she measured 66-57-88.
Well, Miss Pastelenecker, 21, is a German girl visiting this country, so Briscoe suspected a misunderstanding. Turned out she was reckoning in centimeters.

In inches it works out to 34-23-85.
A hen at Merfau laid a brightly hued egg the other day. Described as somewhere between dark yellow and vermilion, the egg appeared to some to resemble a hand-painted Easter egg.
Which led a minister to observe that it was a "hen-painted egg."
When Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Shock recently moved from Conway to Znola in rural Faulkner County, they naturally went about it in experienced fashion. It was their 40th move since they were married Nov. 28, 1903.
Shock, 78, said it didn't cost them much to move because "we didn't have much to move." His wife, 77, is the former Olliebell Bailey.
Their moves have included a 10-year stay in California, where seven of their eight children now live.
Don't be surprised if you see an ungainly (ungainly?) look like a bird on a goose farm near Newport. Four cygnets (baby swans) have been put out with the geese. Eight cygnets were hatched this year by the swans which grace

Ike Visions Continued Future Tours

HONOLULU (AP)—President Eisenhower believes his successors in the White House will find him a diplomatic and political legacy. His inevitable despite the hazards, Eisenhower's views were reported today as the President went golfing for the fourth time in four days, relaxing from the rigors of his controversial Pan Eastern trip.
He teed off in the bright Hawaiian sunshine on a closely guarded course, nesting on the edge of the Pacific, on the other side of the mountain from famed Waikiki Beach.
Eisenhower shunned all outside appointments while resting. In the afternoon, he arranged to work a bit more on the report he has promised the nation of his flying visits to Korea, Formosa, the Philippines and Okinawa.
This major television radio speech will come down heavily on the successors Eisenhower believes he achieved in his widely-claimed stopovers in these four areas.
But he also will deal at some length with the now much-publicized blowup of his planned stopover in Tokyo in the face of leftist plots.
Eisenhower has scheduled his speech for some time next week after he flies back to the White House this weekend.
In Eisenhower's view, the gain registered in the capitals he was able to visit came because presidential tours provide an unequalled opportunity to demonstrate dramatically U.S. interest in individual countries.
The next president, Democrat or Republican, may have to set off on such travels just as much as he has despite the pitfalls, he believes.
One important reason dictating this, Eisenhower feels, is that they undoubtedly will be necessary to offset the personal appearance tours of the Soviet Union's fast-moving Nikita Khrushchev, who shows no signs of slowing down his travels.
It is also because Khrushchev and his apparent determination to negotiate personally at the top that Eisenhower refused to believe that summit conferences are dead.
He is known to share Secretary of State Christian A. Mitter's view that more emphasis could be placed on trying to settle tangled international problems via diplomatic channels, especially in view of the Paris summit collapse.
But if Khrushchev stalls low-level discussions because he insists on a top-level meeting, Eisenhower believes the next president will find it almost impossible to hold out against it.
World public opinion, skillfully exploited by the Soviets, would inevitably drive Western leaders toward a summit date with Khrushchev, in his view.
Officially, Eisenhower has refused to rule out prospects of another flying trip abroad during the remaining six months he has left in office.
The odds against it appear very long.
